YEARS OF EXPERIENCE as a psychologist in the public education System		2 points per year up to maximum of 10
MUNICIPALITY OF RESIDENCE		5
QUALIFIED DISABILITY		5
VETERAN		10
In case of score tiebreaker. It will be awarded according to the date and time of filing the application.

1. In cases where the applicant is an employee of the Human Resources Administration and Transformation System, only the proper functions and the level of the official classification of the position in which he/she was appointed will be considered.
2. Candidates who indicate having experience in the Human Resources Administration and Transformation System, private companies or excluded agencies, must include, together with their examination request, a certification from the agency where they provide or have provided services that includes:
  - a. Position occupied by the applicant
  - b. Weekly, monthly or hourly salary, if it is part-time employment
  - c. Exact dates when the experience was acquired (day-month-year) and number of hours worked, if it is a part-time job
  - d. Description of duties and nature of work
  - e. Gross monthly salary earned
3. An additional score will be awarded to the grade obtained by way of established Veteran Preference or Beneficiary of the Government Economic Assistance Program (TANF Program), subject to submission of official evidence issued by the competent authority that allows verifying that he/she is a creditor of the preference requested or qualified Person with Disability.
  - a. To claim the Veteran preference, it will be required to present a legible copy of the Certificate of Discharge or Discharge Report known as "Form DD-214" or instead "Certification of the Veterans Administration" that indicates the periods of service in the Armed Forces and class of discharge (honorable).
  - b. To claim the preference of Person with Disability, you must present an official medical certification issued by a competent authority, with no less than twelve (12) months, evidencing the condition of disability of the person. Act No. 81-1996, as amended, grants this benefit to any person with a qualified disability in any examination. This law will apply to people whose disability substantially affects one or more of the main activities of their life. The benefit of this law will not apply to persons with disabilities who qualify for veteran preference.
4. The eligible registry will be established in descending order of the qualifications or scores obtained in the exam. In case of equal scores of candidates, the order to appear in the registry will be determined, taking into consideration the following factors in their corresponding order: academic preparation, general academic index and date and time of filing the application. The registration of eligible persons resulting from this call will be canceled once the vacant position is filled.
5. Once the examination request has been submitted and evaluated, no alteration to the information will be accepted.
6. It is essential that candidates present evidence of all work experience and academic preparation indicated in their application for examination. No score will be awarded for experience or preparation that is not evidenced.
7. The experience acquired through internships will be accredited if the following conditions are met:
  - a. Official written certification of the appointing authority or its authorized representative to perform the functions of the position on an interim basis
  - b. The position occupied temporarily is of a higher classification than the position held in property
  - c. Meet the minimum requirements of the position held temporarily, at the time of designation
  - d. Have performed all the duties of the position during the internship period
8. Only citizens of the United States of America and foreigners legally authorized to work qualify for admission into public service.
9. The experience acquired will be considered as long as it has been obtained after the required academic preparation.
10. The academic degrees obtained abroad must be accompanied by the proper certification of accreditation by the competent authorities.
11. Certification of Filing of Income Tax Returns corresponding to the last five (5) years prior to your application, if you were required by law to submit it. This certification is issued by the Department of the Treasury. You can request it at an Internal Revenue Collection Office or at the Virtual Internal Revenue Collection Office. If it is the case that in the Certification of Filing of Income Tax Returns for the year 2019, read "Information Not Available", please submit a copy of the first page of the income tax return for the year prior to the call, with the stamp of the Department of the Treasury, if you filed it in person. If it has been submitted electronically, it must include a copy of the first page, which reflects the validation number.

If you have not been required by law to file income tax return for one or more years within the period of five prior to submitting your examination application, it is required that you submit the Certification of Filing of Income Tax Returns, accompanied of the Certification of Reasons for Which the Taxpayer is Not Required by Law to File the Individual Income Tax Return (Department of the Treasury form-SC2781). If you have not filed an income tax return during the last five (5) years prior to submitting the examination application, you must submit the Certification of Filing of Income Tax Returns corresponding to these years,

You can get the form for Certification of Reasons for Which the Taxpayer Is Not Required by Law to File the Individual Income Tax Return at an Internal Revenue Collection Office or at the Virtual Internal Revenue Collection Office of the Department of the Treasury.

Copies of income tax returns will not be accepted to replace the Certification of Filing of Income Tax Returns.

12. Certification of compliance or debt of ASUME, in original, issued with no less than thirty (30) days. You can request it at any of the ASUME offices or at the Puerto Rico Government website, whose address is: www.pr.gov.
13. As a condition of employment, the selected candidate will be subjected to the controlled substances detection test.
14. The job application is attached to the call.
15. Exam requests and documents sent by fax or email will not be accepted. It is a requirement that every application for an examination be submitted accompanied by all the required documents. Applications that are received after the closing date and time of the examination session will not be accepted. Documents will not be accepted after the closing date of the examination session. If sent by mail, the postmark must be dated on or before the closing date of the examination session.

Documents to be presented:

- a. Exam Request duly completed in all its sections. You must certify with your signature that as a job applicant you are not in breach of the provisions of Act No. 168-2000, as amended, known as the "Law for Strengthening Family Support and Livelihood for the Elderly." If you are subject to an obligation imposed by virtue of a judicial or administrative order under the canopy of the aforementioned Law 168-2000, you must certify with your signature that you are complying with the payment of the economic contribution or with the established obligation. This law was adopted to ensure that people fulfill their responsibility to provide support to their elderly relatives or the elderly.
- a. Credit Transcript in original of the academic degree (s) conferred, related to the position, as established in the minimum requirements of the position indicated in this call for examination. If you have more than one academic degree, you must include the original transcript of credits.

The transcript of credits that you present is a requirement that includes the conferred academic degree, concentration and graduation rate. Any transcript of credits that you present is required to contain the signature of the registrar of the educational institution where you studied.

If you are carrying out studies leading to an academic degree, you must present an original credit transcript that evidences the approved courses. It is a requirement that it contains the signature of the registrar of the educational institution.

Reports of approved courses issued by the educational institution through its website will not be accepted, as they do not contain the signature of the educational institution's registrar.

The Department of Education offers equal employment opportunities, without discrimination in any way based on age, race, color, sex, birth, veteran status, political or religious ideology, origin or social condition, sexual orientation or gender identity, physical or mental disability or impairment; nor for being a victim of domestic violence, sexual assault or stalking.

For legal purposes in relation to Title VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964; Public Law 88-352, 42 USC. 2000 et seq .; the Constitution of the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico; Circular Letter No. 19-2014-2015, Public policy on gender equity and its integration into the curriculum of the Puerto Rico Department of Education as an instrument to promote the dignity of the human being and the equality of all before the law; and the principle of grammatical economy and unmarked gender of the Spanish spelling, the use of the terms candidate and technical and any use that may refer to both genders, includes both masculine and feminine.
